In order to process your recertification, payment and training documentation must be received with your original and signed application. Faxed or photocopies of applications will not be accepted.

All CCB credentials are due for recertification on the 1st day of the month.

Recertification fees may be paid by check or money order, or by credit card online at the CCB website. CASH IS NOT ACCEPTED BY THE CCB FOR ANY FEES. All CCB fees are non-refundable. If there is a problem with your recertification application, you will be notified in writing. It is your responsibility to know when your credential is due for recertification and to complete the recertification process prior to your recertification deadline. A late fee is due 30 days after your recertification due date and is applied to each credential due for recertification.

Annual CPP Recertification Requirements

Review carefully, as several changes have been made effective September 2010.

Certified Prevention Professional credential	20 hours of prevention-specific training (1) (2) including 1 hour of CCB-approved ethics PER RECERTIFICATION PERIOD
NOTES:	(1) Training events include workshops, conferences, college courses, in-service and distance learning programs, and must be documented with a certificate of attendance, official transcript or letter from training entity in order to be applied to the recertification process. No other activities will be accepted in lieu of training requirements (i.e., Category II activities). (2) At least half of the trainings must be CCB-approved (i.e., 10 CCB-approved hours for CPP)

IMPORTANT NOTICE: The CCB no longer requires original educational and training certificates to be submitted with the recertification application. Your recertification application will not be processed unless you submit copies of all educational activities being applied to recertification. Falsification of any part of this application will be grounds for review by the Ethics Committee of the Connecticut Certification Board and may result in having certification suspended or revoked.

Please Note:

- 1) In order to become/maintain international certification with the IC&RC, if you are reciprocally certified as a CAC, CCS, CCDP, CCDP-D or CPP, no fee or application is required as the CCB staff will process this as part of your recertification application. If you are eligible for international certification with IC&RC, your certificate will be sent directly to you by the IC&RC approximately 6 weeks after you complete the recertification process.
- 2) It is your responsibility to be aware of your recertification date and to complete the recertification process prior to your renewal date. Applicants should make copies of everything submitted and ensure they are maintaining records of training events attended and copies of all recertification applications submitted.
- 3) Education not properly documented will be denied and delay the processing of your recertification. Training documentation must include at minimum your name, sponsoring organization, date of training, number of hours attended, trainer, and title of training. All trainings must be at least 1 hour in duration and must have been obtained in the previous two year period.
- 4) College courses submitted must have a completion date within the recertification period and be documented with an official transcript sent directly from the educational institution. Unofficial transcripts will not be accepted.
- 5) If you do not have sufficient CCB-approved content, you can request a review of the content by CCB staff (application, fee and training materials required). To request a CCB content review, contact the CCB office for details, submission requirements and to request an application.

SEND ORIGINAL/SIGNED APPLICATION TO THE CCB - No faxed or photocopied applications.

However, photocopies of training documentation will be accepted.

Recertification Training Documentation

Please verify the training requirements of your credential (page 2) for the renewal period selected and list the training and educational events you are applying to fulfill those requirements using the form below. List the date, training title, training agency, CCB approval (indicate if the event is CCB approved), and number of hours for each event. YOU MUST ATTACH VERIFICATION OF ALL TRAINING EVENTS TO THIS APPLICATION. In order to become recertified, you must fulfill all of the recertification requirements. For questions about recertification, please contact the CCB office.

CCB approved training: Most CCB credentials require that half of all training applied towards recertification be CCB reviewed and approved to ensure the content meets or exceeds CCB educational standards. It is your responsibility to verify that a portion (typically half) of the training you apply towards recertification is CCB approved. For a list of CCB approved distance learning providers, visit the CCB website as all content offered by these providers is CCB approved. All training provided by DMHAS – Education and Training is CCB approved as well as many of the training events offered by the Connecticut Association of Non-Profits and the CT DARC programs. Trainings that are CCB approved usually note this on their course description or on the training certificates. You should ask training providers if the content is CCB approved. Also, all trainings approved by other IC&RC member boards are considered CCB approved. Please visit www.icrcaoda.org for a list of member boards.
