

The Connecticut Certification Board, Inc.

eNews

CAC/LADC/CADC Exam Preparation Course For The September 10th, 2010 Test

7/7/2010

Wallingford, CT – Back by popular demand, the CCB is pleased to announce that the Trundy Institute of Addiction Counseling is offering a two day workshop in August at the CCB Office in Wallingford. The workshops are designed to help people who are taking the CAC/LADC/CADC written examination on September 10th, 2010 prepare for this challenging test. Key topics addressed in these workshops include:

- New Testing Format/Changes
- 12 Core Functions & Global Criteria
- Alcohol and Drug Info
- Three Practice Exams and Related Reviews
- Counseling Theory
- Test Taking Strategies
- Case Study Test and Review
- Test Taking Styles
- Developing a Test Prep Strategy
- And much more!

The workshops are presented by Arthur Trundy, M.Ed., LADC I, CADAC II, CCS, CCDP-D. Mr. Trundy is the Program Director of the Trundy Institute of Addiction Counseling and has close to 30 years of human service experience and over 20 years in substance abuse treatment and education.

Register today and see how these workshops can improve your test taking skills!

Please click the link below for more information and how to register for these innovative workshops:

Trundy Institute Flyer

This is a paid advertisement by the Trundy Institute. The CCB does not endorse or guarantee any test prep courses!