New Issue of CCB Newsletter Progress Notes is Now Available

The latest issue of Progress Notes, the CCB newsletter, was released August 24, 2011. Progress Notes is an electronic newsletter designed to share current trends and events in the behavioral healthcare field. The newsletter provides information about new CCB programs and services; emerging trends and current events within the field of behavioral healthcare; as well as CCB updates and changes to credentialing standards, fees, and submission requirements. The publication serves as a great resource to the field and allows certified professionals to become more connected and informed.

The premiere issue of Progress Notes, published in March 2010, was mailed to over 1700 CCB certified professionals and agencies across Connecticut during the first week of March. The new Summer 2011 issue is now available electronically on the CCB website.

The Summer 2011 issue of Progress Notes includes content on:

- American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM) Definition of Addiction
- Important Office Hours Update
- Science 2 Service © Distance Learning Update Including Free 1-Hour Course
- Latest News from the IC&RC
- Betty Ford Tribute
- Connecticut Recovery Conference

Progress Notes will continue to feature news, information and updates about trends within the field and topics that are important to behavioral health professionals. We encourage you to distribute copies throughout your agencies and with anyone that may be interested. If you would like to get involved with future issues of Progress Notes or submit content, please send your questions, suggestions or comments by email to Jeff Quamme at jquamme@ctcertboard.org or call the CCB office for more information. Paid and unpaid advertising options are also available for approved content.
